

April 11, 2010

My friends, today's Gospel is about Thomas the Doubter, who, one week after the first Easter, could not believe that Jesus was alive and speaking to him. He is so like us, refusing to believe that good can triumph over evil. Let us today call to mind where we are tempted to lose hope for peace, for love, for joy, for goodness. Let us believe in life from death, in the triumph of good over evil.

FYI: Helias High School has agreed to be the host-site for CHRISTpower 2010. Our enrollment is limited. The desire of the Planners is to continue to make CHRISTpower a meaningful, spiritual service oriented, and fun experience for all who attend. Therefore, acceptance will be on a “first come-first serve” basis.

CHRISTpower 2010 will be from Sunday 7:00 p.m., July 11 until noon Saturday, July 17. Since these are economically stressful times for many, we have reduced the cost to $125 for this year. Often, we are asked if we have grants or scholarships for teens. We do not. Some teens seek financial assistance from their parish youth organization or other parish entity. Ultimately, the teen is responsible to get the payment(s) to CHRISTpower by the deadline. Any parish entity providing support to the teen should clearly state on any payment made to CHRISTpower, the name of the teen receiving the support. Contact the parish office if you are interested in attending CHRISTpower 2010.

AMERICAN ROOTS MUSIC TRAVELING EXHIBITION

From May 1 through June 12 the Mark Twain Museum is hosting a Smithsonian traveling exhibit, “American Roots Music.” This focuses on the various music forms that originated in the United States, starting with spiritual music. Many types of church music are included.

Mark Twain Museum is preparing an exhibit of its own to accompany the Smithsonian exhibit. This will look at music in Hannibal. Any music-related photographs from churches would be welcome for the exhibit. Mark Twain Museum will scan your photos and return the originals in a few days.

We are seeking pictures of choirs, bands, organists, pianists, basically any music related images. We are also seeking photographs, programs, instruments, and uniforms of any Hannibal-related music groups or productions. Have you been involved in other musical ventures and have memorabilia to share?

If you have anything that might be of interest about music in Hannibal, please call Chris Ledbetter at 221-4759.

REMINDER... If you have changed your phone number to a cell number or made any address change, please let us know at the office. We need to have current addresses and phone numbers in order to contact you. If your phone number is unlisted, we do not give it out.
