

July 18, 2010

Last week in the parable of the Good Samaritan, we were challenged to an active, self-sacrificing love. In today's Gospel we are challenged to be quiet, to slow down, to listen. Together these messages encourage us to live a balanced life. Let us pray today for wisdom as we seek balance in our own lives.

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend you will have the opportunity to fill out a brief survey on our parish and its needs.

The Long Range Planning Committee has been working for sometime to identify the needs of our parish.

On the June 27th and July 4th weekends our parish bulletin contained a list of the needs that were identified for our parish.

I ask all of you to make sure you fill out the survey at the Mass you are attending this weekend. Remember this is YOUR parish and your help is needed to ensure a vital, active, Catholic community for future generations.

Let me and the Long Range Planning Committee know what YOU see as our needs.

Thanks so much for your cooperation in this important matter! In Christ, Fr. Mike

Sunday Soundbite for the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

We might call today "hospitality Sunday." Our Gospel story is the familiar account of Jesus visiting the home of Martha and Mary. Martha sounds a lot like my Italian grandmother. I remember how, as a child growing up in the house where my grandmother lived, I would watch her prepare for Sunday company. Guests who came to our house would be the center of attention. My grandmother would work feverishly before the guests arrived to prepare the meal. During the meal she would fuss at them, to make sure they had enough to eat - of every dish on the table. Woe to you if you failed to sample everything my grandmother had prepared! She imitated Martha's busy concern for guests, making sure they had all they needed.

But there's another side of hospitality besides fussing over the food or accommodations for a guest. It's taking the time to listen, to give the other our full attention. Last Sunday the story of the Good Samaritan urged us to take a risk to become involved with others as a true neighbor. Today we have the "how-to" of Christian neighborliness. In our parishes, neighborhoods and city, we need both dimensions of Christian hospitality: actively serving while we seek to truly listen and understand.

- Father Greg Friedman, with the "Sunday Soundbite" for St. Anthony Messenger Press
